ABOUT US

With our heart on Österlen and nature as our source of inspiration, we design and make furniture locally with a strong focus on quality. All our furniture and design products are made in Sweden.

Nature inspires both our choice of materials and our production methods. Everything we make is produced locally in close cooperation with all our suppliers, so we can guarantee furniture made in an ethically and environmentally sustainable way.

Our journey began on Österlen in the early 2000s, when we started making furniture ourselves. Today we make a wide range of design furniture and Compact Living furniture such as wall beds – furniture that lasts and saves both space and the environment. Our vision is for our furniture to last long enough to be used for generations.

The inspiration for our furniture

ÖSTERLEN

Österlen is a popular tourist area in south-eastern Skåne with romantic open landscapes and beautiful nature. The lovely coast and idyllic villages, where farming and culture meet, make Österlen well worth a visit. Every spring, five different art trails are held in Skåne.

BÄSTEKILLE

Bästekille is a hamlet set fairly high up, west of Kivik on the east coast of Österlen. The hills offer beautiful views over Stenshuvud and Kivik. Nearby there are horse farms offering trail riding.

BORSTHUSEN

Borsthusen is a small village south of Vik on the east coast of Skåne. The nearby beach is a popular spot for surfers.

HANNAS

On the road between Ystad and Simrishamn, east of Bollerup, lies Hannas, where horses graze in the landscape. Hannas is a small, traditional and cosy village centred on its church, which has an interesting 18th-century rural rococo style.

KVÄRRESTAD

In the middle of Österlen, a little south of the road from Simrishamn on the east coast to Lund in the west, lies the small village of Kvärestad. Surrounded by farms and with a church from the 1870s, it is a traditional parish village with classic architecture, a rectory and a rectory park.

KÅSEBERGA

On the beautiful south coast of Skåne, east of Ystad on Österlen, lies Kåseberga. It is a popular destination known for Ales Stenar, a group of 58 standing stones probably raised in the late Iron Age. Kåseberga also has a charming harbour with fish restaurants.

MAGLEHEM

Maglehem, originally Maglehjem, is a small church village on the east coast of Skåne, north of Brösarp and south of Degeberga. The coast along Hanö Bay has beautiful beaches. Just outside the village is Maglehem's cider press, where apples from Äppelgården are made into juice and other drinks.

MULLSJÖ

East of the old-growth forest of Ryfors, by Lake Mullsjön just west of Lake Vättern, lies Mullsjö, a small town of 5,000 inhabitants. Mullsjö is a scenic area with hiking in several nearby nature reserves.

SLIMMINGE

Slimminge is a small village north of Skurup at the start of the long Romeleåsen ridge, which stretches all the way to Lund.

SPJUTSTORP

North-east of Tomelilla in the middle of Skåne lies Spjutstorp, which also has a beautiful old church. Its campsite and bathing spot have made it a popular summer destination, and classic car meets are held during the summer months.

TRANESGÅRDEN

In the heart of culture-rich Skåne-Tranås, on the cobbled square, stands Tranesgården, a traditional half-timbered building that regularly hosts cultural events. Tranås, on the road between Kristianstad and Ystad, has existed since the 10th century. It became Skåne-Tranås so as not to be confused with the town of the same name in Småland. Every year Skåne-Tranås takes part in the well-known Skåne art trail.

AGUSA

High up on the Linderödsåsen ridge, on the border between Tomelilla and Kristianstad municipalities, lies the small village of Agusa. It sits along the road between the alum works in Andrarum and Hörröd, surrounded by mixed and lush deciduous forest rich in wildlife and plants.

BACKÅKRA

Backåkra is Dag Hammarskjöld's four-winged farmhouse in Ystad municipality, between Löderup beach and Sandhammaren. Since 2015 the farm has been owned by the Dag Hammarskjöld Backåkra Foundation.

BASKEMÖLLA

The fishing village of Baskemölla has been inhabited since the Stone Age. The name comes from baske, dry twigs, and mölla, Scanian for mill. The village climbs the steep slope towards the Baltic Sea with views of Stenshuvud to the north, and narrow lanes wind between the houses and gardens.

GLADSAX

High up in the rolling farmland lies idyllic Gladsax. Farms and houses cluster along the narrow, winding village street, where hollyhocks lean out over the road in summer. Around the village an open, hilly landscape spreads out.

ILLSTORP

Along the country road between Christinehof and Önnköping lies Illstorp, surrounded by fields and forest. The Verkeån river runs through the area, home to trout and bullhead, while dippers, grey wagtails and kingfishers nest here. Several species of orchid also grow here.

ONSLUNDA

In the middle of Tomelilla municipality lies the craft village of Onslunda, long known for its brush making. South of the village are popular walking areas with wooded eskers. To the north lie the old Onslunda quarry and a belt of beech forest where the tree frog thrives.

SILLARÖD

In the north-west corner of Tomelilla municipality lies little Sillaröd, made up mostly of old farms. The village association has been active for generations, and between 1784 and 1910 it recorded everything that happened in the village in a book now kept in the regional archives in Lund.

SIMRIS

Simris is a lively village all year round, where new mixes with old and permanent residents with summer visitors. The winding streets are lined with houses of different colours, shapes and styles. The village stretches mainly along the road between Simrishamn and Borrby.

TOMMARP

Östra Tommarp was once called Tumathorp and in the Middle Ages was an important town with its own mint and monastery. Today Tommarp has a charming village atmosphere with an antiques shop, a gallery, retro furniture and a greyhound track. The train station in neighbouring Gärsnäs is a couple of kilometres away.

ÖRUM

Örum lies in Hörup parish in Ystad municipality, in the middle of Österlen. The village has kept its 19th-century character with typical Scanian longhouses. Along the village street the houses stand close together, a mix of farms and old craftsmen's cottages.
